Publisher's Note

Jihad, the existence of Paradise or of Hell-fire and the Resurrection are Muhammad's principal beliefs, and he based upon them his whole system of morality. Jihad is the sixth pillar of Islam. It is the duty of every Muslim to wage war against the infidels, and to fight against them until they become Muslims or pay tribute and acknowledge the supremacy of Islam. Jihad is a duty ordained by God and is a perfect good and holy, so that those who are killed in Jihad are certain of the highest degree of Paradise.

Not so regarding the Jihad, the sixth and ninth commandments. Muslims are only to wage Jihad against the infidels who live in their neighborhood.

Why Allah Allows the Messenger to Fight Against the Infidels?

Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) Fighting Against the Infidels

Lord's Land Given to the Messenger (peace) and his Companions (peace) Jihad of Clear Lies, not the present Jihad of Truth and Falsehood Jihad of Truth and Falsehood Jihad of Truth and Falsehood Jihad of Truth and Falsehood

The Prophet (peace) said to the people of Medina (peace) Jihad in Medina Jihad in Medina Jihad and Fasting Jihad and Fasting Jihad and Fasting

One of the immediate, and "Where the Blue Meets sound" issues from their religious teachings and the basic premise of the Bahai religion, is the idea that all religions are equally valid and that Bahaullah is the prophet for today's world. Of course, this is a very nice idea, and it sounds very good to people who are not Muslims, but it is very bad for Muslims. Bahaullah and his followers are trying to convince Muslims and people who have never heard of Islam that Islam is dead and that Islam is a religion for people who live in the past, and that Bahaullah is the prophet for today's world. Bahaullah's followers are using the same tactics as the Christian missionaries, and the same tactics used by the Jehovah's Witnesses and other cults, to organize. We know, as a matter fact, which every true believer knows, and which every enthusiastic person who has read the Holy Quran knows, that Islam is the last and final revelation from God to mankind, and that Muhammad is the last messenger of God to mankind and that Islam is the only way to salvation.

Islam is the only way to salvation because it is the only way that God has revealed to us, and we know that God is the only way to salvation because God has said so in the Holy Quran.

The Bahai cult is organized in most cities, including the neighborhood of the Jehovah Witnesses in the area in which I live, and they are using the same tactics as the Jehovah's Witness cult to organize. They are using the same tactics as the cults that are trying to convince people that the Mormons are not a cult, and they are using the same tactics as the Christian missionaries to convert people to their religion. They are using the same tactics as the Christian missionaries to convert people to their religion because they are using the same tactics as the Christian missionaries because they are using the same tactics as the Christian missionaries because they are using the same tactics as the Christian missionaries
